

Watershed Groups in San Joaquin County

Cosumnes Watershed Group

c/o Dave Martinez
6235 Galena Dr.
El Dorado, CA 95623
530/626-4924

Purpose: The maintenance and enhancement of the biological and hydrological resources of the Cosumnes River watershed.

San Joaquin County Open Space and Farmland Trust

c/o Mike Robinson
7000 S. Inland Drive
Stockton, CA 95605
209/466-4915

Committee to Save the Mokelumne

c/o Bill Jennings
3536 Rainer Avenue
Stockton, CA 95204
209/464-5090

San Joaquin County Resource Conservation District

c/o John B. Meek, Jr.
1222 Monaco Ct., Suite 23
Stockton, CA 95207-6742
209/946-6229 x127

Purpose: This program involves implementing three key elements; 1) development and implementation of a community-based stewardship program; 2) continuation and expansion of an environmental farm plan; 3) Expansion of biological monitoring programs to include neo-tropical landbirds.

Audubon Society San Joaquin Chapter

c/o Jim Rowoth
P.O. Box 7755
Stockton, CA 95267
209/462-7512

<http://www.stocktonet.com/community/audubon/>

Watershed Groups in Sacramento County

Cosumnes Watershed Group

Friends of the Roseville Parkway

Cosumnes River Preserve

Dry Creek Conservancy

Yolo Basin Foundation

American River Coalition

Sacramento Tree Foundation

Florin Resource Conservation District

American River Parkway Foundation

Sacramento River Watershed Program

Save the American River Association

Audubon Society - Sacramento Chapter

American River Natural History Assoc.

California Native Plant Society
Sacramento Valley Chapter

Sloughhouse Resource Conservation District

Urban Creeks Council - Sacramento Chapter Lower

Cosumnes Resource Conservation District

Capitol Good Neighbor Environmental Liason, Inc.

Fish, Farms, & Forests Communities Forum

Northern California Council
Federation of Flyfishers

The Nature Conservancy
Cosumnes River Preserve

For more information on any of these watershed groups, visit <http://www.ice.ucdavis.edu/groups/>